Dedication

"Sometimes a thoroughly dedicated and able man dwells in a community touching and inspiring the lives of all with whom he comes in contact." This man is the true inspiration of all dwelling in the community of St. Mary's. His faith in the students as individuals provides a challenge for the perfection of character. He is the guiding light for all the doubts and uncertainties which each girl experiences while in school. He is known on campus for his great optimism and cheerfulness which infects all.

Because, Dr. Guerry, through your humble quietness and mumbled explanations of your "inadequacy" comes the truth—

Because "by being blessed by being at St. Mary's," you have truly been a blessing to mankind—

Because you are a great man and a great teacher, we proudly dedicate the 1963 STAGECOACH to you.

We arrive at St. Mary's—

So we examine ourselves,
Timidly at first,
And finally we perceive a shadow
Of our inner selves—

Orientation

Cydne and Mary Stella welcome both old and new girls to the 1962-1963 school year.

A fond farewell from Father to Daughter!

"We'll never tell!"

It's that way!

Y.W.C.A.

At St. Mary's, the Y.W.C.A. is a fellowship of students which is active in both civic and campus activities. One of the most rewarding products this group undertakes is the party at the orphanage each Christmas. Through the Y.W.C.A. each student is given an opportunity to develop interests which lie outside the work of the classroom.

FRESHMEN

OFFICERS: Emaly Pemberton, treasurer; Kinsey Sabiston, vice-president; Anne Underwood, president; Lela Cowardin, secretary.

In September there appeared a maze of new faces, mostly feminine, and all of them looked so very much alike. We were eager and wanted to explore the unfamiliar; but there was too much movement and too little time to be alone or quiet. Yet by May, we had learned to live and work in close proximity to each other, and the traditions of St. Mary's had become part of our way of life.

We swallowed our hearts as we drove through the gates on September 15th. We opened only one eye when our roommates timidly introduced themselves. Eyeshadow at breakfast was soon replaced by circles, and "clod pants" became the uniform. The Chargrill was discovered, and we began to avoid the scales. Now we laugh when we think of our first date with a college boy—and we still dream of staying out until 11:30.

Wondering

Searching

Hoping,
Struggling,
Faltering,
Yet surging onward—

Richard G. Stone
President

Dr. Richard G. Stone's broad perspective, his high standards, and his firmness in times of crisis provide steady guidance for life at St. Mary's. His dedication to the students and his interest in all phases of the school have made St. Mary's a real "home away from home."

Miss Edith A. Richardson

Miss Edith A. Richardson is an invaluable asset to St. Mary's. "Miss R." spends immeasurable hours assisting the students with the many decisions concerning college life. Her thoughtful manner and her calm poise are inspirations to all St. Mary's girls.

The Reverend Moultrie Guerry

Dr. Moultrie Guerry has the perfect blending of dignity and enthusiastic wit to be a model for us all. His understanding and interest in us make us realize that there is always someone to whom we can turn.

Faculty and Staff

A fleeting nod turns into a glance of recognition. We stand in awe of the faculty's knowledge . . . we are grateful for their understanding . . . and we see in them that for which we are reaching. The things they have taught us in classes and labs race blindly through our minds. Suddenly, in one brief moment, all their efforts are appreciated as what they have taught us falls neatly into place.

Sophomore Class

OFFICERS: Susan Spaulding, president; Winborne Shaffer, vice-president; Gretchen Bullard, secretary; Ann Hoover Smith, treasurer.

We come back, discovering that there is someone younger than ourselves, and we carefully inspect her. Scrapbooks, old clothes, and old annuals are left behind, and we face our sophomore year with the knowledge that we are slowly gaining our individual places in the world.

We realize that we have changed . . . even Elsie has!!! Participation becomes the keynote in our lives as we branch out to join organizations. We remember the Orientation Talent Show with the antics of "Luiwigi" and "Cherub" . . . we remember tunafish sandwiches on Friday night . . . and we remember the blur of lights as the Beacon walked up the front steps. We begin to look to the future and know that soon Counselor Haynes will no longer entertain us with her "uke." Graduation nears and we suddenly realize how many of the "great" beach trips never materialized . . . and that the "one and only" we were so sure of in September is now a pleasant memory. As we go out the front door, we catch a glimpse of ourselves in the mirror by the door . . . and we see ourselves secure and happy from the common experiences we have shared at St. Mary's.

SARAH RAND, Fire Captain

Fire Captain

Raincoats . . . towels . . . flashlights . . . and shouts of "why this morning, Sarah?" fly through the halls with the long blasts of the fire siren. Sarah Rand, the fire captain at St. Mary's, has the responsibility of carrying out fire drills with the cooperation of the Raleigh Fire Department.

Assembly Chairman

The ting of a bell . . . the shuffling of feet . . . and Ann's soft, Georgian "will the assembly please come to order" are familiar sounds on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. Ann Smith, the assembly chairman, exercises poise, responsibility, and originality in the assembly programs that are held twice a week at St. Mary's.

ANN SMITH, Assembly Chairman

Front row: Jane Deloach, Elizabeth Bird, Kattie Kerby, Gretchen Craig, President.
Second row: Judy Morton, Panthea Twitty.

Canterbury Club

Members of the Canterbury Club meet every Sunday night to discuss religion in the world today. It is an organization which welcomes all denominations to its meetings. Under the leadership of Gretchen Craig as president, this club has various projects throughout the year, such as selling blazers.

Dance Marshals

A friendly smile and a cheerful greeting are typical of the Dance Marshals elected by each class. These girls have the responsibility of planning and supervising the class dances held at St. Mary's. Dependability and originality are two basic requirements for this office. The results of the Dance Marshals' work is a night of pleasant memories.

Honor Council

The Honor Council at St. Mary's has striven to "achieve a balance between consistency and individual concern in handling all cases." Each member thinks independently and acts according to the dictates of her judgment. This judicial branch of the Student Government interprets the Honor Code and exercises fairness in dealing with any violations.

MARY STELLA LEAK, Chairman of Hall Council

Nelson Pemberton, Mary Stella Leak, and Karen Herndon are the three permanent members of the Disciplinary Committee of Hall Council.

Hall Council

An important part of Student Government is the Hall Council. It is composed of the hall counselors and of the day students' representatives. This council, under the leadership of Mary Stella Leak, meets weekly to decide upon matters outside the authority of the Honor Council.

VERNA GILLAM, Chairman

Legislative Body

"Freshman cannot date on Friday night and Seniors must be in by midnight on Saturday" is a familiar sound after "Leg." Body meetings. The Legislative Body, under the chairmanship of Verna Gillam, considers petitions concerning changes in social and dormitory life. This group is composed of the Student Government officers, faculty advisors, and representatives elected by the various classes.

Seated: Eleanor Stowe, Susan Spaulding, Betty Gee Herndon, Mary Roper, Verna Gillam, Haynes Walker, Gee Canada, Ann Underwood, Ann Dorsey Day. Standing: Belle Williams, Harriet King, Roses Watson, Perry Grimes.

Junior Class

OFFICERS: Clare Garden, treasurer; Roses Watson, president; Martha Weeks, secretary; Alice Du Pre, vice-president.

In the first year of college, we discover each other in all night talks. We suddenly see a different side of ourselves—a more serious side. Purpose in life becomes a reality to face, and we develop a genuine interest in the world around us. By the end of the year, we are ready to take our places as the leaders of St. Mary's.

We have never seen such confusion as opening day—the name tags, the introductions, trunks, and the torrents of rain. The rain, however, does not dampen our spirits—for at long last we are in college. Now we can recollect. It seems no time ago that we gazed curiously at our new roommates, hoping that they, too, have to roll up their hair every night. September is filled with trying to learn phone hours, remembering to sign out, and wishing desperately that we were at home. The confusion soon becomes familiarity as the football week-ends, fraternity parties, and Saturday classes turn into reality.

NANCY BAUM, President

The Collegiate Council for the United Nations is an organization which strives to create an awareness of and appreciation for the United Nations. The small discussion group tries to stimulate interest in international events and to make a study of world problems. Each year the organization sends delegates to a regional mock General Assembly to voice the opinion of a particular country. The advisor, Dr. Morrison, helps prepare the delegates by holding current events seminars.

KAREN VOM LEHN, Student Co-Ordinator

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild has the important function of taking care of the chapel and assisting in the various services. Alice Gribbin has successfully served as president of this organization which has the responsibility of looking after the linen, books, and flowers for each service. Its members also serve as alcolytes which have an active part in the Chapel services during the week and on Sundays.

Alice Gribbin, President

Orchesis

Self-expression in a blue leotard . . . creativity in the movement of an arm . . . and much hard work are all found in this group. Orchesis, under the direction of Mrs. Doris Bailey, is the honorary modern dance society at St. Mary's. These girls present many outstanding programs both on and off campus.

SUSAN GOODE, President

Standing: Georgia Roux, Margaret Allen, Harriet Williams, Ann Farmer.
Kneeling: Patty Mudder, Jane DeLoach.

CYDNE WRIGHT, President

Caperettes

Precision kicks . . . the whirl of red skirts . . . rhythmic sound of taps . . . these things mean the Caperettes. This group, newly organized this year, is under the supervision of Mrs. Doris Bailey. The Caperettes offer much enjoyment to the members as well as to the student body.

The Muse

The Muse is a literary publication which is the result of long hours and thoughtful discussions. The pages of the Muse are filled with the excellent work of the students who excell in writing or in art.

Rosa Beckwith, Editor

Seated: Rosa Beckwith, Mary Quern, Betty O'Bryan, Kate Smoot, Jess MacFarland, Frances Pegues. Standing: Elizabeth Lackey, Clare Lloyd, Elizabeth Ponton, Janie Judd, Lily Ross, Anne Chapman, Pam Baker, Panthea Twitty.

The Belles

SALLY STEVENS, Editor

This year, the St. Mary's biweekly publication, The Belles, has offered a new style of journalism to the students. Through pertinent editorials, witty features, and articles presenting the world situation, the paper has achieved an air of distinction.

First row: Leah Osgood, Marilyn Koonce, Mary B. Brown, Laurie Burbank, Elizabeth Lackey, Rosanne Hollis. Second row: Janie Judd, Betsy Rudisill, Diane Ricks, Betty Pat Parson, Frances McLanahan, Nelson Pemberton, Roses Watson. Third row: Betty Gee Herndon, Anne DeLaverne, Dudley Lester, Rosalie Hanley, Diane Harrelson, Susie Nagel, Mary Block, Hilda Little. Fourth row: Sally Stevens, Ann Richards, Nancy Griffin, Caroline Walker, Sarah Rand, Lily Ross, Harriet Spruill, Susan Cook, Sue Battle, Dianne Littlefield, Carol Turner, Judy Randolph, Frances Pegues, Susan Hathaway, Joanna Houston, Kay Miller, Alice Hubner, Cornelia Fitzgerald, Flo Pitts.

From confusion, order—
From misdirection, guidance—

Letter Club

The Letter Club consists of girls who have excelled in at least two sports throughout the year. The club plans the year's sports events, and at the end of a year, a banquet is given at which a plaque is awarded to the team with the most points. The club also promotes good sportsmanship and keen competition in all sports.

Cold Cuts

"Little Darling" . . . "Get 'em any where you can!" . . . and Gigi's "beatstick" are typical of the Cold Cuts. This lively group of girls do much to boost the school spirit aside from the entertainment which they provide. Dressed in "clod pants," carrying fantastical instruments, and always with a "song in their hearts," the Cold Cuts often venture off campus to play for civic clubs and for various fraternities.

"Mama Didn't Lie"

"The Old Guard" with President Isabel Bandy at the piano.

Y.R.C.

The Young Republican Club stimulates student interest in national government and interest in the two party system in North Carolina. This club also encourages students to become aware of what is going on in the political world.

Officers: Top to Bottom: Liza Sory, Vice-President; Bert Bradshaw, President; Martha Wright, Secretary.

Young Democrats Club Officers: Matilda Gholson, President; Ann Farmer, Vice President; Anita Strickland, Secretary; Barbara McKenzie, Treasurer.

Y.D.C.

The Young Democrats Club provides an opportunity for students to participate in the democratic processes of the state and federal governments. This group on campus encourages interest and support of the Democratic party.

Sea Saints

The Sea Saints consist of girls who have demonstrated aquatic ability and individual style in swimming. Mrs. Bradburn directs this honorary swimming club. The highlight of their activities is a colorful water ballet which is presented before the student body and citizens of Raleigh.

FLO MCNEER, President

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club, under the capable direction of Mrs. Nancy Stamey, presents two plays each year. The Thanksgiving play was "Alice in Wonderland," and "The Miracle Worker" was the Commencement play. This is certainly one of the most fascinating clubs at St. Mary's, and it provides many enjoyable evenings of entertainment for the people of Raleigh as well as for the students.

Officers: Leah Osgood, Vice-President; Jess MacFarland, President.

The White Rabbit has the "Scoop"

Choir

The Choir adds much to the spiritual atmosphere in the Chapel at St. Mary's. These girls are under the capable direction of Mr. Russell Broughton. The Choir sings at every Chapel service, and also presents special programs at Christmas and Epiphany.

Beginning on left: Tim Sirmonkol, Mavis Hill, Lela Cowardin, Beth Sanders, Lela Hall, Patricia Wrenn, Judy Randolph, Leslie Thompson, Marion Purcell, Gretchen Craig, Leah Osgood, Roses Watson, Karen von Lehn, Kit Williamson, Anne Cheatham, Barbara Bonner, Alexa Draxler, Kay Van Doren, Mary Stallings, Peachy Lee, Alice DuPre.

Front: Anita Strickland, Sally Stevens, Anne Scott. Back: Nancy Baum, Susan Spaulding.

Glee Club

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Cate, presents programs for the students of St. Mary's and Raleigh citizens at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Commencement. The originality of the group and their lovely voices create some of the most enjoyable moments which we have at St. Mary's.

The Ensemble is composed of girls from the Glee Club who excel in voice. This group of talented girls presents a variety of programs for many community organizations.

Miss Geraldine Cate, Director

Ensemble

First row: Barbara Bonner, Polly Hart, Sally Strong, Barbara McKenzie, Betsy Phiffer, Susan Strong, Elizabeth Bird. Second row: Alice Gann, Sally Poindexter, Dottie Walters, Shirley Truitt, Gretchen Craig, Dianne Gould, Marion Purcell.

Doctors' Daughters' Club

DAUGHTERS' CLUB

The Doctors' Daughters' Club is an organization for girls whose fathers are doctors. At various intervals throughout the year, the members perform volunteer services at the different hospitals in Raleigh.

Granddaughters' Club

St. Mary's girls whose mothers or grandmothers came to St. Mary's are members of the Granddaughters' Club. These girls serve the school by selling address books and by helping at the various social functions at St. Mary's.

Susan Goode, President of Orchesis

May Day

On the first week-end in May under the shade of the old oaks, the St. Mary's students in Mrs. Doris Bailey's dance classes whirl the culmination of their weeks of preparation. About four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, alumnae, parents, and visitors were swept into a land of fantasy through the elaborate costumes, scenery, and intricate dances. This year's theme centering in New York City, became a place of excitement and opportunity as Susan Goode took the lead in conducting a tour.

To decide upon
The outer expression
Of our inner selves—

That which will appear
Upon
The canvas of our lives—

Senior Class

Mickey Singletary, vice-president; Gee Canada, president; Shirley Keedwell, treasurer; Sandy Johnson, secretary.

An inexplicable quiver runs through us as we register for the last time on Smedes porch. Familiar faces give us an "old sense of being." We find "little sisters," and we try to convince them that it's not impossible to find their way back from the village. In the hurry of the first weeks as Seniors, we soon discover that we really are the oldest . . . that we must set the example . . . and that we are what we made of ourselves.

We share the weight of the world with Atlas as we fight the Trojan War on Summer Reading Tests. We remember Sandy chasing "the little man" . . . the masked strangers (alias Leak and Allen) on the front porch . . . Gee's beat-stick . . . third Holt . . . and the night "HE" called. Bull sessions, a "hand of bridge," afternoon "naps," and all the wonderful daydreams began to take the lead over studying. Exams arrived full force, and we abandoned everything (almost) except the books.

Our world expands, and the "world situation," the fear of communist domination, and a keen awareness of a Greater Being begin to focus in our lives. Suddenly in a page of history or in the "quiet, cool night" as the lights dim in evening chapel, we pause in a moment of introspection realizing all that we have left undone and that we can never achieve all to which we aspired. With this realization, we smile knowingly when the Freshman says, "I understand."

By the time of graduation, we understand that part of our lives is a vision, part a memory. Through our experiences at St. Mary's, our vision of the future has been enriched as the memory of our college days grows dearer. Soon we will be saying, "Now when I was in school. . . ."

The maddening click of typewriter keys and scribbled curly lines begin to form a pattern. "Greek" turns into "Dear Sir:", and typing forty words a minute soon seems like singing nursery rhymes. The language of the business world assumes familiarity, and competent secretaries are the finished results of this department.

A combination of good sense and good taste, Verna is the essence of dependability and reliability. She recognizes her responsibility in the performance of her every task and always does more than her share. Verna has set the highest standards for herself and has successfully maintained them.

NANNIE HUSSEY

Nannie's charm and friendliness have made her loved by all. Her versatility and capability characterize her as a well-rounded student and an outstanding leader. Behind her bubbling nature and merry laughter, there lies a distinct air of seriousness which complements her high ideals.

MARY STELLA LEAK

Enthusiastic and conscientious, Mary Stella is always eager to serve others. With a warm smile and a friendly greeting, she finds time to fulfill her many duties. Being an outstanding leader and a willing follower have made Mary Stella an important part of St. Mary's.

NELSON PEMBERTON

Sportsmanship, leadership, scholarship—these characteristics are significant of Nelson's many outstanding qualities. She is known for her ready wit, good disposition, and mild manner. Nelson's sincerity of purpose and her awareness of obligation to duty have made her a real asset to St. Mary's.

Outstanding Seniors

HAYNES WALKER

Haynes' friendly smile and her genuine concern for her fellow students are well-known to everyone. She has contributed immeasurably to St. Mary's through her sacrifice of time and energy in her every endeavor. Sincerity, maturity, unquestionable ability, and never-ending interest—these traits have won for Haynes a unique place in the hearts of her many friends.

CYDNE WRIGHT

Cydne's sincere efforts to uphold a high sense of honor at St. Mary's makes her one of the most respected leaders of the school. Her trustworthy character and her sound principles are recognized by all. Cydne is a good student and a favorite of everyone—a combination that cannot be beaten.

Marshals

The six marshals elected each spring from the rising Senior Class usher at chapel services and at school entertainments. An old tradition, as one of the duties of the chief marshal is the dropping of a handkerchief after graduation services to signify the official closing of the school year.

Top to bottom: Susan Goode, Betsy Steele, Elizabeth Lackey, Frances McLanahan, Cornelia Johnson, Matilda Gholson, Chief Marshal.

NANNIE HUSSEY, Editor

Time swiftly hurries past, carrying with it priceless moments—the 1962-'63 STAGECOACH is an effort to preserve some few of the memories which fill our college days. The staff has worked diligently and eagerly trying to capture the spirit at St. Mary's. Individual ideas have been put together to give an impression of St. Mary's 1962-1963.

First row: Nannie Hussey, Cornelia Johnson, Weldon Cabel, Louise Clark, Peggy Dukes, Frances Pegues, Mary Stuart Dent, Billie Glass. Second row: Carolyn Broun, Janet Price, Kate Smoot, Dianne Croonenberghs, Margaret Anderson, Alice Gribbin, Clare Garden, Terry Allen, Mary Ann King, Bet Taylor, Macon Remsberg, Libby Beury, Martha Weeks.

The Business Staff of the STAGECOACH exerts a co-ordinated effort in its attempt to sell advertisements. Deadlines, square inches, and dollar signs contribute to the carefully drawn layout pages. A final meeting of the business and editorial staffs puts the last check of approval on what is to be the 1962-'63 STAGECOACH.

This year's best yearbooks

. . . are produced at Edwards & Broughton. Since 1902 we have had quality as our first concern in the production of letterpress and lithographed annuals. Our new large plant and our recently acquired equipment enables us to do an even better job without losing our personal touch. You can be truly proud of your annual . . . if it was produced by Edwards & Broughton.
